

Indian Trails Public Library District

Books are just the beginning...

BIKE TO THE LIBRARY DAY!

Indian Trails Public Library to be flooded by bicycles in July

(WHEELING, IL) JUNE 23, 2010 – Indian Trails Public Library District invites all patrons to ride their bicycle to the library on Friday, July 9th.

The library will be open for its regular hours, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., and promises to have a bike rack for patrons to lock up their bikes.

“We wanted to somehow incorporate exercise with the library and a fun activity that will help the environment,” said Rose Johnson, Children’s Program Coordinator.

Patrons of all ages are encouraged to wear their helmets and ride safely to the library and bring their bike locks with them. Bicyclists will be greeted by special staff and entered into a drawing for bike riders only. Three lucky winners will win prizes from the drawing. Patrons should bring their bike locks. No registration is necessary for this program.

“This is a great family activity and we invite everyone to join in and bike to Indian Trails that day,” said Jennifer Koch, Public Relations Manager.

For information about Indian Trails Public Library events and programs, please visit the library’s web site at www.indiantrailslibrary.org or call 847.459.4100. #####

About Indian Trails Public Library District

The Indian Trails Public Library District, 355 S. Schoenbeck Road in Wheeling, IL, was established in 1958. The library’s mission is to provide resources for the public to read, enjoy and participate in the world. On an annual basis more than 29,000 patrons attend 700 programs; children’s programs accounting for more than 400. In 2009, the public borrowed one million items out of a collection of more than 266,000 books, CDs and DVDs. The library is a non-profit funded by the state of Illinois primarily through local property taxes. For more information on the library and its upcoming events and reading programs, please call 847.459.4100 or visit www.indiantrailslibrary.org.