IT'S A MAGICAL WORLD AT THE LIBRARY

Library to offer insider's peek into Harry Potter before November's movie release

(WHEELING, IL) AUGUST 30, 2010 – Enter the magical world with a thrilling insider's peek into the movies of Harry Potter at Indian Trails Public Library District on Tuesday, September 28th.

“The program will give Harry Potter fans a chance to love these characters and stories even more,” he said. “Those attending will learn things about the movies, they didn't already know.”

Steven Frenzel will host The Hidden Harry Potter on Tuesday, September 28th, 6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., at the Indian Trails Public Library District, 355 S. Schoenbeck Road, in Wheeling, IL. Frenzel teaches film at Alexander Graham Bell Montessori School and admits to being an enormous Harry Potter fan.

“I'd heard so much about Harry Potter that I picked up a book and have loved it ever since,” he said. One thing he found interesting is how characters who are kind seem to do well in the end.

This unique program will include watching scenes from all six Harry Potter films. Frenzel will share inside jokes and reveal behind-the-scenes fascinating facts sure to delight Potter fans. Great moments and scenes will be highlighted in anticipation of the next Harry Potter film release this fall. No registration is necessary. For ages 8 and older.

“Storytelling is our oldest human art form,” Frenzel said. “Any opportunity to love and admire a story of any kind is a great blessing.”
