

Travel the World from the comfort of your arm chair

Avoid the hassles of airport security, delayed flights and lost baggage. Sit back and share the excitement of exploring the USA or traveling to other lands. Many writers have traveled huge distances and endured discomfort and danger so you don't have to. Relax and enjoy!

Finding George Orwell in Burma (915.91/LAR) by Emma Larkin

While following Orwell's footsteps through present day Burma the author discovers that the nightmare of Nineteen Eighty-Four is a reality. check catalog

Mexican Days: journeys into the heart of Mexico (917.2/COH) by Tony Cohan

From his home in the small mountain town of San Miguel de Allende the author sets out to explore his adopted country. Join him on his fascinating journey and gain a new perspective on our neighbor to the south. check catalog

The Places in Between (915.8104/STE) by Rory Stewart

While walking across Afghanistan Rory Stewart met hundreds of ordinary people. He was alone and a stranger, and came from a culture they despised. Read about his remarkable encounters in this little understood country. check catalog

Lapping America: A Man, A Corvette, and the Interstates (917.304/SMI) by Claude Clayton Smith

The system of Interstate highways was completed fifty years ago and, in celebration of this anniversary, the author drove his red corvette around the perimeter of the country. Sit in the passenger seat and enjoy the ride! check catalog

River of No Reprieve. Descending Siberia's Waterway of Exile, Death, and Destiny (915.7/TAY) by Jeffrey Tayler

Beauty and bleakness go hand in hand in the vastness of Siberia. The author sets out on a perilous river journey that is made even more dangerous by the bitter attitude of his Russian guide. check catalog

A Land Gone Lonesome: An Inland Voyage Along the Yukon River (917.986/ONE) by Dan O'Neill

Travel down the Yukon River in a canoe with the author. On his way through the wilderness he meets people clinging to the old ways of life and who embody the true pioneer spirit. check catalog

Pedaling to Hawaii: a human powered odyssey (910.41/SMI) by Stevie Smith
Armed with enthusiasm and little else, two young men set out to reach Hawaii from London under their own power. Their adventures on bikes, pedal boats and in line skates make hugely entertaining reading. check catalog

Down the Nile Alone in a Fisherman's Skiff (916.204/MAH) by Rosemary Mahoney
Most of the Egyptians she met were horrified to see a woman rowing at all, let alone tackling portions of the Nile in a small skiff. But she did it anyway and brought back a fascinating account of modern life on the banks of this great river. check catalog

In a Sunburned Country (919.4/BRY) by Bill Bryson
Take an entertaining journey through the vastness that is Australia. Meet its friendly inhabitants and its strange, and sometimes deadly, animal population. check catalog

Dark Star Safari: Overland from Cairo to Cape Town (916.04/THE) by Paul Theroux
Taking only public transport, or begging rides from strangers, Theroux travels from one end of Africa to the other. Take a fascinating and unforgettable journey through a troubled continent. check catalog

Breaking the Limit. One Woman's Motorcycle Journey through North America (917.304/LAR) by Karen Larsen
A young woman undertakes a fifteen thousand mile journey on the back roads of North America. This is an absorbing story of endurance and discovery. check catalog

The Third Coast (917.704) by Ted McClelland
In the spring of 2005 Ted McClelland drove out of Chicago at the start of a circular tour of the Great Lakes. Join him as he encounters all kinds of people and unusual places on his journey around the Third Coast. check catalog

Apples are from Kazakhstan: the land that disappeared (915.845) by Christopher Robbins
Kazakhstan is a country the size of Western Europe that was closed to the West for many decades. You may have heard of its shrinking Aral Sea but there is much more to discover in the company of an observant and entertaining writer. check catalog

INDIAN TRAILS PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT

355 S. Schoenbeck Rd
Wheeling, IL 60090
Telephone 847-459-4100 Fax: 847-459-4760
TDD: 847-459-5271
Web site: <http://www.indiantrailslibrary.org>

PT/revised August 2008/revised January 2010