Library closes for renovation March 20, moves to temporary location April 4

Groundbreaking ceremony and public sale to be held April 2

The Indian Trails Public Library, 355 Schoenbeck Rd., Wheeling, will close at 5 p.m., March 20 for renovation and interior remodeling that is expected to take 8-12 months. The library will open at a temporary location, 70 W. Dundee Rd., Buffalo Grove at 9 a.m., Monday, April 4.

Staff anticipates moving about 40 percent of the library’s physical collection to the temporary site. All services, including programs and the use of computers, will be offered at the Buffalo Grove site. Some larger programs will be held at offsite locations.

During the two-week closing, all online resources will be available and hours at the library’s branch in Prospect Heights, 99 E. Palatine Rd., Prospect Heights, will be extended.

In preparation for the move, the library will be holding a children’s used book sale, Saturday, March 5, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. and Sunday, March 6, 12-3 p.m. Admission is free to the sale.

On Saturday, April 2, a groundbreaking ceremony will be held at 11 am with activities and refreshments; and a public sale of furniture and equipment will be held 10 a.m.-3 p.m. at the Schoenbeck location. No other services will be available at the library that day. Those interested in the sale are encouraged to check the renovation site before the sale for a list of items that will be available for purchase.
