

ESL Language Lab

Section 1: Eligibility

The ESL Language Lab is intended for use by English as a Second Language (ESL) students and ESL tutors. The space provides ESL students with an introduction to the library's ESL services, tutoring sign-in and independent learning for ESL students on dedicated computers within this space. All members using the ESL Language Lab are expected to follow all library policies.

Section 2: Computer Use

The computers in the ESL Language Lab are for ESL students only, as scheduled by library staff or volunteers. These computers have dedicated software and are intended to support services related to English Language learning.

Section 3: Collection

A tutoring collection is housed in this space. All members are welcome to check out the materials from the tutoring collection. If the space is closed, members can request staff assistance for accessing the materials.

Section 4: Temporary Service Changes

The Executive Director may authorize temporary reallocation of the space to support library wide goals and initiatives.
