

Rise to the Challenge Reading Program:

Read a book that has a number in the title

Below are recommendations for books that have a number in the title

A Knight of the Seven Kingdoms

by George RR Martin

Genre: Epic Fantasy

Descriptors: Descriptive; World-building; Plot-driven; Compelling; Knights & knighthood

One Two Three

by Laurie Frankel

Genre: Contemporary Fiction

Descriptors: Coming of age; Character-driven; thought-provoking; Witty; Engaged

Three Moments of an Explosion

by China Miéville

Genre: Fantasy

Descriptors: Short stories; Compelling; Creepy; Thought-provoking

The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo

by Taylor Jenkins Reid

Genre: Historical Fiction

Descriptors: Celebrities; Hollywood; Character-driven; Strong female; Atmospheric

Six of Crows

by Leigh Bardugo

Genre: Young Adult/Fantasy

Descriptors: High Fantasy; Complex; World-building; Action-packed; Magic

The Ten-Year Nap

By Meg Wolitzer

Genre: Contemporary Fiction

Descriptors: Motherhood; Manhattan; Witty

Nine Women, One Dress

by Jane Rosen

Genre: Fiction

Descriptors: Heartwarming; Engaging; Self-discovery

The Ten Thousand Doors of January

by Alix Harrow

Genre: Fantasy

Descriptors: Historical; Lyrical; Haunting; Books and reading; Storytellers

Eight Hundred Grapes

by Laura Dave

Genre: Fiction

Descriptors: Family gatherings; Relatable; Upbeat; Character-driven; Moving

