

Rise to the Challenge Reading Program: Read a book that's on a different continent

Below are recommendations of books that take place on different continents

Forest of a thousand lanterns

By Julie Dao

Genre: Young Adult Fantasy

Continent: Asia

Descriptors: Plot-driven, own voices, folklore inspired, dark

She who became the sun

by Shelley Parker-Chan

Genre: Historical Fantasy

Continent: Asia

Descriptors: Complex, intricately plotted, world-building, dramatic, compelling

My sister the serial killer

by Oyinkan Braithwaite

Genre: Fiction

Continent: Africa

Descriptors: Dark, humorous, intricately plotted, compelling, intensifying

The island

by Adrian McKinty

Genre: Thriller

Continent: Australia

Descriptors: Intricately plotted, fast-paced, suspenseful, high-drama, compelling

Rise to the Challenge Reading Program:

Read a book that's on a different continent

Violeta

by Isabel Allende

Genre: Historical Fiction

Continent: South America

Descriptors: Well-developed, character-driven, moving, inspiring, compelling

The seven sisters

by Lucinda Riley

Genre: Historical Fiction

Continent: South America

Descriptors: Authentic, sweeping, fast-paced, romantic, engaging

How the penguins saved Veronica

by Hazel Prior

Genre: Fiction

Continent: Antarctica

Descriptors: Multiple perspectives, intricately plotted, heartwarming

The killing ship

by Simon Beaufort

Genre: Thriller

Continent: Antarctica

Descriptors: Well-developed, action-packed, intensifying, suspenseful, compelling

Two nights in Lisbon

by Chris Pavone

Genre: Thriller

Continent: Europe

Descriptors: Multiple perspectives, intricately plotted, compelling