

Rise to the Challenge Reading Program:

Read a work that takes place on a mode of transportation

Below are recommendations for books that take place on a mode of transportation.

One Last Stop

By Casey McQuiston

Genre: Romantic Comedy

Transportation: Train

Descriptors: Time Slip; Intricately Plotted; Likeable Characters; Moving; Funny

The Girl on the Train

by Paula Hawkins

Genre: Psychological Suspense

Transportation: Train

Descriptors: Unreliable Narrator; Fast-Paced; Nonlinear; Compelling; Stylistically Complex

Flight of Dreams

By Ariel Lawhon

Genre: Historical Thriller

Transportation: Airship

Descriptors: Hindenburg; Well-Developed; Atmospheric; Richly Detailed; Compelling

The Devil and the Dark Water

by Stuart Turton

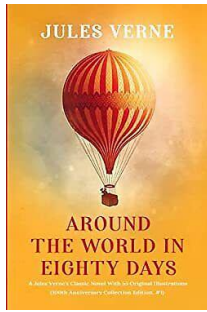

Genre: Historical Mystery

Transportation: Boat

Descriptors: Suspenseful; Dramatic; Intricately Plotted; Descriptive; Compelling

Rise to the Challenge Reading Program:

Read a work that takes place on a mode of transportation

Around the World in Eighty Days

by Jules Verne

Genre: Adventure

Transportation: Hot Air Balloon

Descriptors: Plot-Driven; Suspenseful; Attention-Grabbing; Travel

The Caine Mutiny: A Novel of World War II

By Herman Wouk

Genre: Historical Fiction

Transportation: Ship

Descriptors: War Story; Compelling; Gritty; Inspired by Real Events

Tevye the Dairyman and the Railroad Stories

by Sholem Aleichem

Genre: Fiction

Transportation: Train

Descriptors: Short Stories; Translated; Jewish Stories

In the Unlikely Event

by Judy Blume

Genre: Historical Fiction

Transportation: Airplane

Descriptors: Family Saga; Moving; Character-Driven; Moving; Engaging

Washington Black

by Esi Edugyan

Genre: Historical Fiction

Transportation: Hot-Air Balloon

Descriptors: Character-Driven; Racism; Richly Detailed; Compelling